Next Meeting

April 8th @ 10 AM, St. Matthias

Our Program will be McCarthy's Horse and Buggy Quilt Company (Amish quilts, Amish way of life and present the history of quilts and their patterns, 10 Wuilt Code, underground RR quilts).

Cheryl Deventhal introduced Sue Dray from Pine Grove Quilt Shop. Sue told us they will be celebrating there 2nd anniversary at the new shop. Currently they have 3600 bolts of fabric, and the anniversary sale will be from March 21 – 28 with 25% off fabric. Sue also showed us many different ways to make ½ square triangles.

The Proposed Budget was discussed with many concerned that receiving the Newsletter by snail mail they were not receiving all the information but were assured that the only difference was it was printed in black and white. A motion was made and carried to continue sending the Newsletter as we are now.

Open membership was discussed, however, parking would be a problem as well the room would be to small to accommodate more members.

Moving the Chinese Auction to a Saturday and opening it to the public was discussed as another fund raiser.

An increase in dues was discussed. A motion was made and carried to raise dues to $25.00 per year, which are due before May 15. Please complete the form in this newsletter and return it to Carol Clothier with your check.

The Proposed Budget was amended by the addition of Membership-$60, voted on and approved total of $4,375 per year.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH - Agnes Gates

There were 5 members who completed the mystery wall hanging. They were displayed around the room and during the break all members voted on the winner, Joyce Kerl.

Let's take a break from the mysteries. I am thinking, spring, soft colors, soft blues, yellows, greens.

Choose your favorite 9 and a half inch block. Your favorite spring colors. Make as many blocks as you wish, write your name down once for every block you make. The more blocks the better your chances of winning. Winner takes all. The lucky person should have a nice start to a pretty spring quilt.
