

MORNINGSTAR QUILT GUILD

Meeting Minutes

January 12, 2011

I. Announcements

President Kumro asked new members to introduce themselves and welcomed the guests

Linda Hunter was introduced. Linda presented a very informative and enjoyable slide show program on the language of flowers.

The group broke for a short break.

II. Discussion

- President Kumro discussed a possible bus trip to the Syracuse area in May. There will be more information at the next meeting.
 - There was no information on the Consortium meeting as we did not have anyone attending due to the weather.
 - Patti Baehre distributed embroidery name tags to those members who requested them. She asked if anyone else needed name tags.
 - There was a discussion on the Chinese auction for February and the one scheduled for the public later this year. It was decided to put off the public Chinese Auction for now.
 - President Kumro reviewed the budget and asked for a motion to accept the budget. Barbara Golibersul made the motion to accept and it was seconded by Jan Walkden. The budget was passed by a majority.
 - Membership – Marge Friend indicated we have reached capacity at 100 members.
 - Charity Quilts – Anne Wasmund reviewed where the charity quilts were distributed and the on-going need for Veterans quilts as well as quilts for shelters. She thanked everyone for their support. She is also in need of batting, backing, blocks, etc.
 - Newsletter – Donna Forhecz asked if any member would prefer to receive a hard copy of the newsletter as opposed to an e-mail.
 - Sunshine – Elaine McClory- Jeanette Kuck broke her femur and is wheel chair bound. Any cards to her would be appreciated.
 - Workshops – Carol Clothier – there is no workshop for February. March will be a workshop on Charity Quilts. Anne Wasmund to attend and help complete some quilts.
 - Hostess – No report
 - Library – Mary Lou Corelli asked for volunteers to help clean out the library so discarded items could be put in the Chinese Auction.
 - Secret Pals – Jeri Clark explained the process for new members.
 - Block of the Month – Agnes Gates explained that this new project will be a mystery quilt and will be revealed in May. Instructions will be in the newsletter.
 - Ways and Means – Terry Doyle announced the winner this month – Jan Walkden.
- President Kumro asked for show and share, and as usual it was great.

III. Meeting Adjourned

Meeting adjourned at 12:10 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathleen A. Jerzewski
