

Happy Fall, Y'all!

This is probably my favorite time of year, even though this summer was spectacular. I love getting back to cooking soups & bread, lighting my woodstove and having football Sundays to spend in my sewing room. I hate football, but sure do love to quilt. And I'm thinking I'm not alone.

We're in the final preparations, as I write this, for our quilt show. Thank you, Ladies, for all your hard work in getting ready for this. Be proud of this accomplishment! You are such a talented group & I'm honored to be hanging my quilting hat with you. I'd especially like to thank Nancy & Penny for their chairmanship of this event. It's a ton of work and this is their 2nd show. Gracias, girls!

Thanks to Ways and Means for the beautiful plant and buttons that I won at the last meeting. Looks great in my kitchen! Also, congrats to the BOM winner, Jeri Clark.

Next month we begin Secret Pals. Have a lot of fun with that, all who signed up. I'm already making plans. We will also draw the winner for the raffle quilt at that time. The quilt has raised a very nice amount so far. Please get your tickets in to the committee. Don't forget that gift certificate for the sewing center!

Enjoy this changing season of the year. We don't turn clocks back until November 7th! I'm looking forward to getting that hour back for quilting.

And enjoy the show!

Autumn is a second spring where every leaf is a flower.

Charity Quilts - Anne Wasmund - 837-4360

Your response to our charity challenges have been amazing! Not only do I have a bed covered in quilts, but the workmanship is incredible. Its so nice to see not only your hard work, but your heart in each of them.

More Disappearing 4 Patch Quilt kits will be available at the next meeting. However, if you would like to try the pattern on your own here is the website:

<http://sewwonderful.blogspot.com/2010/02/disappearing-4-patch-or-4-to-9-patch.html>

The VA would prefer patriotic colors, but I am sure any masculine colors would be fine. I will also try to offer additional patterns in the coming months to mix things up a bit. They prefer twin size.

So the VA rooms can have cozy feel for the holidays, I would like to present quilts to the residents before Christmas. I know we are all busy, but if you could get the tops finished, Penny's Tuesday group can quilt them for you. Other assorted kits are always available. Many thanks to all the hands that contribute in anyway. Anne Wasmund
